Weekly Wild Wednesday

Ruth Rose and her dogs Buddy (Left) and Mandy (Right)

Wild Wednesday is a way to learn new things while sharing progress--- for anyone who is interested in the fun and relaxed “Grow Wild With Us!” project.

Wild Wednesday started in September of 2020, as a way to document the beginning of ‘Learn and Laugh right along With Us’ projects. It soon expanded to include neighborly input and interesting tidbits and ideas for Citizen Science projects. Now it shares many items just for fun as well-- like a newsletter-- while still documenting the budding core projects of Grow Wild! which are:

- Jackson Street Sioux City, Iowa “The Flower House”
- 4th Street Sioux City, Iowa “The Yanney Gardens at Guarantee Roofing”
- Talbot Road Sioux City, Iowa “The Wild Mess In Progress” Test Gardens
- Memorial Drive Sioux City, Iowa “The Pocket Prairie” Friends of Stone State Park prairie restoration
