May 22nd, 2024
What a Week of "Plant Sale Pleasure!"

The plants arrived for the sale right on time! What fun sorting, tagging, chatting, and learning about each plant as it was unpacked, watered, and sorted! Thank you to Cheri, Lisa, Ruth, Marcie, and everyone else who helped!

Tom recycled the boxes, and now we are wishing we had kept them for starting new garden beds...oh well...

And the sale went so well! We nearly sold out at the Member's Only Sale!

← Lilly found an Inch Worm!

And what FUN it was to see so many of the smiling faces receiving their grants!

YippeeEEEEEEEE! Our Lady Slippers are starting to bloom at The Wild Mess in Progress!

These are from Hillside Nursery!

What a treat to have these beautiful flowers in our lives!
